

Worn Women

Women, worn and tired from overwork, need a tonic. That feeling of weakness or helplessness will not leave you of itself. You should take Wine of Cardui, that effectual remedy for the ailments and weaknesses of women. Thousands of women have tried Cardui and write enthusiastically of the great benefit it has been to them. Try it—don't experiment—use this reliable, oft-tried medicine.

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Rena Hare, of Pierce, Fla., tried Cardui and afterward wrote: "I was a sufferer from all sorts of female trouble, had pain in my side and legs, could not sleep, had shortness of breath. I suffered for years, until my husband insisted on my trying Cardui. The first bottle gave me relief and now I am almost well. Try Cardui. It will help you."

SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 24, 1909

LITTLE BOY DROWNED.

Found drowned in a swimming pool at Atlantic City at daybreak yesterday after an all-night search led by his grief-stricken father, George Buckman, a youngster of 7 years, is believed to have been an innocent victim of a feud between rival bands of negro youths, who clashed near the pool Thursday night and fought with stones, clubs and other weapons until the appearance of the police broke up the melee.

Scores of angry neighbors are convinced that the boy, watching the progress of the hand-to-hand battle of the negro bands, was deliberately pushed in to the deep pool. He was floating face upward in the concrete basin yesterday morning when a band of searchers, with Buckman at their head, went there at daylight.

The boy went out to play after supper Thursday night. From the time he left home until he was found drowned in the big pool yesterday morning his movements are shrouded in mystery. Almost nightly of late the vicinity of the pool has been a scene of clashes between two gangs, each of which fought to secure possession of the big bathing tank.

WIFE CAN'T CHOOSE HOME.

That a wife has no right of choice as to where she will make her home is shown in the report of Frank S. Katzenbach, jr., as a master in chancery, recommending that Bernard Miller, formerly of Trenton, N. J., be granted a divorce from his wife, on the ground of desertion. The Millers were married in Trenton, and a short time later Miller obtained a position in Jersey City. He asked his wife to accompany him there, but she refused to do so, saying, according to the testimony, that she preferred to remain with her parents. Later Miller rented and furnished a home in Newark and requested his wife to go there to live. Again, according to the testimony, she refused, and Miller thereupon began suit for divorce, charging desertion. Mr. Katzenbach finds that the charge is proven, and recommends the divorce.

GOAT CLEARS FERRYBOAT.

"Nanny," a butting goat, took possession of the ferryboat Elizabeth from stem to stern yesterday morning and after sending all the deckhands over the side into the harbor at South Norwalk, Conn., she even hit Captain Cornelius O. Hegeman, a corpulent man, beneath the waistline and sent him swimming with the rest. "Nanny" next tackled an automobile and dented her armor somewhat. James Donnelly, a former cowboy, made a line into a lasso and in this way the goat was restrained. "Nanny" is owned by Mrs. N. B. Smith, of Huntington, L. I., and furnished nourishment for two young Smiths. Mrs. Smith was visiting Norwalk and "Nanny" escaped early Thursday morning, no trace of her being found till a telephone message was received asking for a patrol wagon to take "Nanny" home and a doctor to resuscitate six men.
